- 2. A considerable portion of the discussion was off the record and involved the various considerations applicable to a resumption of the bombing in North Vietnam. The Director also pointed out that if the purpose of such bombings were to affect the fighting in the south the facts, as he outlined them, did not support such an objective.
- 3. The session was totally devoted to questions and answers. The members participated in a lively fashion and were most complimentary to the Director on his candid responses.
